Dear Mr. White:

On December 19, 2008, I filed a State Records Act Request to your entity. Exhibit 1.

The response I received is a joke at best. A Steven Sandvoss sent a cover letter with my name and address. His salutation is to a 'Dear Ms. Horrigan' who ever that might be as it is not me.

According to Sandvoss' letter, there is no paperwork for Barack Hussein Obama regarding his 1996 candidacy? Are you telling me the State Board of Elections for Illinois has no paperwork whatsoever on a candidate who eventually became a state senator?

No forms he filled out to run for office in your state? No proof he was eligible under your state laws, nothing?

I ran for Congress in California; on the ballot legally. The Secretary of State's office as well as the election section had many forms I was required to fill out. It is inconceivable to me that a person could run for the Illinois State Senate and fill out not one piece of paper?

Something isn't right here and I would appreciate a response from you.

Cordially,

Devvy Kidd

Dear Mr. White:

On January 7, 2009, I sent you certified mail which was signed for by Ryan Turner. A copy is attached to refresh your memory.

To date, you have not responded to my letter. Mr. Sandvoss sent me data I did not request and ignored the items I requested under a State Records Act Request.

I am asking you to please provide the information I requested as soon as possible or provide an answer to to why you cannot do so.

Cordially,

Devy Kidd
